Eleni Georgiopoulou is the name hidden behind the fabulous pieces of Chicuel. She always remembers herself being involved in the fashion and design industry. Influenced by her love for the ethnic culture geneve, Eleni has created a collection of clothes, characterized by intense colours and intricate designs.

Her experience and taste contributed to the creation of the Chicuel brand in 2014, along with her passion for design and the matching of special materials and colours. Today, a Greek craft fashion industry embodies this passion, making a difference by paying great attention to aesthetics, quality and detail.
